RESOLUTION OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF

ORANGE COUNTY, CALIFORNIA

June 20, 1979

On the motion of Supervisor Riley, duly seconded and carried, the following Resolution was adopted:

WHEREAS, John Wayne qualifies for the select category of great Americans, a man of special popularity with all Americans, a man of humility, of honesty, and also a man of great strength in the beliefs he held important; and

WHEREAS, John Wayne will be remembered as a hero of the American West, exemplifying in his character the qualities of the West, a love of freedom, fundamental optimism, a search for the new frontiers, and a super strong patriotism; and

WHEREAS, John Wayne was a symbol to the world of the traditional American virtues, and the ideals which he fostered will remain with us always; and

WHEREAS, John Wayne has brought pride to all Orange County citizens, making it entirely appropriate that a major County facility be named in his honor;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that this Board does hereby rename the Orange County Airport, calling it the John Wayne Airport, Orange County, and does hereby order the preparation of a suitable plaque bearing the likeness of John Wayne and with the following inscription: John Wayne -- American.
