

Spring Chen

Summary

Experienced accounting and tax professional with two decades of experience in public and private accounting, including extensive expertise in property taxation. Committed to continuing to serve the community by supporting fair, impartial, and well-reasoned property tax appeal decisions.

Professional Experience

- Founder and Owner | CLASSICCPA (Irvine, CA) 2025-Present
Provide tax planning, financial planning, wealth management, and investment advisory services.
 - Founder and Owner | Classic CPA, a CPA firm (Irvine, CA) 2011-2025
Provided comprehensive CPA services, including business and individual tax preparation, tax consulting, tax planning, financial statement preparation, compilation, and audit services.
 - Tax and Audit Accountant | Rossi Doskocil & Finkelstein LLP, a CPA firm (Long Beach, CA) 2007-2011
Performed audit services for multi-million dollar organizations; provided tax and consulting services for individuals, partnerships and corporations.
 - Accounting Manager | Trinity Church International Inc. (Dallas, TX) 2005-2007
Managed the accounting department of a nonprofit organization, overseeing financial reporting, budgeting, and internal controls.
-

Licenses & Professional Affiliations

- IRS Enrolled Agent
 - Registered Investment Advisor
 - Certified Internal Auditor (Inactive)
 - Certified Public Accountant (Inactive)
-

Education

- M.S. in Accounting Information and Management - University of Texas at Dallas (2005)
 - B.A. in Chinese Language and Literature Education - Liaocheng University (1998)
-

Community Involvement

- Board member, Technology Innovation & Civilization Foundation, a nonprofit organization promoting human civilization through scientific developments and technological innovations.