Scott Lee is a partner in the Los Angeles office of Lewis Brisbois. He is co-founder and co-chair of the Korean Business & Litigation and Lithium-Ion Battery practices, as well as co-chair of the Japan practice. Mr. Lee focuses his practice on commercial litigation, employment, general liability, corporate, and bankruptcy. He currently serves as chair of the Los Angeles Office Summer Associate Committee and is a member of the firm's Diversity and Inclusion Committee. Mr. Lee also serves on the Orange County Tax Assessment Appeals Board as an appointee of the Orange County Board of Supervisors.

As a founding member of the Korean Business & Litigation practice, which currently includes a number of Korean-American attorneys in multiple offices across the country, Mr. Lee has successfully handled numerous high-value matters and currently represents some of Korea's largest companies in various U.S. legal matters. Through his efforts, the firm advises a wide range of Korean companies doing business in the U.S. and maintains a strong network with the major law firms in Korea to jointly handle cross-border issues.

Prior to joining Lewis Brisbois, Mr. Lee worked for the largest Asian-American insurance brokerage in the U.S.
