SUBJECT: CITY OF BREA MAYOR CECILIA HUPP FOR REAPPOINTMENT TO THE HOUSING & COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT COMMISSION AS CITY MEMBER 1

Dear City Selection Committee Members:

I, Cecilia Hupp, Mayor for the City of Brea, respectfully request your support for my reappointment to serve as City Member 1 on the Housing & Community Development Commission. It has been an honor to serve in this role since my initial appointment in 2020, and I remain committed to advising on effective housing strategies and ensuring that resources are used effectively to meet the needs of communities throughout Orange County.

In addition to my service on the City Selection Committee - Housing & Community Development Commission, I have had the honor of serving on the Brea City Council since 2014, where I have remained actively engaged in addressing local and regional issues that impact our community. I currently represent the City of Brea on several boards and committees, including the following:

I hope to continue supporting efforts that expand access to housing for low-income residents while ensuring that available funding is used responsibly and effectively. I am committed to working collaboratively to provide thoughtful input that helps guide housing and community development strategies, with a focus on practical solutions that meet the needs of our communities in Orange County.

QUESTION 2:

The Opportunity Notice lists the Objective and/or Responsibilities of this position; what qualifications or skills do you bring to the position you are seeking appointment?

RESPONSE:

As Mayor for the City of Brea, and a representative on various boards and commissions, my commitment to this work is also shaped by my personal and professional experience. Alongside my husband, I co-founded a mortgage business in Brea more than three decades ago, providing me with a strong understanding of the housing market and the challenges individuals and families face in securing affordable housing. Additionally, my more than 30 years of service in a leadership role on my Homeowner's Association Board of Directors has strengthened my ability to build positive working relationships with residents, businesses, and community organizations. I consider myself a fiscal conservative who values prudent spending and transparency in government, and I strive to apply these principles in all my public service roles.

As a current City Selection representative on this Commission, I have remained actively involved and committed to ensuring that Orange County's housing and community development goals are met in a way that is both effective and responsive to the needs of our Orange County residents. I look forward to continuing to bring my public service and real estate experience to the Commission, offering a practical and informed perspective to support responsible and meaningful housing and community development efforts across Orange County.

Should you need additional information, please do not hesitate to contact my office at [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] or by telephone at [REDACTED].

Thank you for your attention, and I hope you will honor me with your vote.

Sincerely,

Cecilia Hupp
Mayor
City of Brea

Cecilia Hupp
City Council Member

Mayor Cecilia Hupp was elected to the Brea City Council in November 2014 and re-elected in 2018 and 2022. She previously served as Mayor in 2017, during Brea's Centennial Year, again in 2022, and currently in 2026.

During her service on the City Council, Mayor Hupp has championed housing and community development and advocates for affordable housing opportunities for senior citizens. Mayor Hupp has surveyed the progress of innovative, mixed-use developments at La Floresta, Brea Place, Central Park Village, Brea 265, and the Brea Mall redevelopment. She has presided over the conversion of repurposed railroad tracks into a 50-acre linear, multi-use trail, known as the Tracks at Brea, as well as the construction of the 57 Freeway/Lambert Road Interchange. Mayor Hupp has also overseen the implementation of two regional homeless Navigation Centers, in partnership with North Orange County Cities, and approved Brea's first workforce-housing project. In doing so, Mayor Hupp seeks team-building to achieve mutually beneficial goals.

Mayor Hupp considers herself a fiscal conservative, who believes in prudent spending, as well as transparency in government. While in office, she has lobbied both the state and federal levels over issues such as paramedic tax reform, local control, and pension reform. Mayor Hupp exudes fiscal resourcefulness through having established a $10 million PARS irrevocable trust fund account to assist with the City's employee retirement obligations. Additionally, she judiciously approved a 25% fiscal reserve policy for the City of Brea's annual budget.

Currently, Mayor Hupp is serving on the following:

- League of California Cities Housing, Community and Economic Development Policy Committee
- National League of Cities Community and Economic Development Advocacy Committee
- Southern California Association of Governments (SCAG) Community, Economic and Human Development Committee

In addition to working in the mortgage business for over three decades, Mayor Hupp participated with her children in youth sports programs as a team mom while her husband coached. Currently, she has three granddaughters and one grandson. She enjoys gardening, cooking, and golf. Plus, she often visits the Brea Dog Park with two pet Shih Tzu dogs.
